

HYMNS

Charles Wesley, John’s brother, picks up on the All Saints Day theme in his hymn, “Come, Let us Join our Friends Above,” #709 in the United Methodist Hymnal. In the first verse, he offers a wonderful image of the Church through the ages:

*Let saints on earth unite to sing,
with those to glory gone,
for all the servants of our King
in earth and heaven, are one.*

This hymn tells us those “to glory gone” are joined by the “saints on earth,” whom we also celebrate on All Saints Day. We recognize that we are part of a giant choir singing the same song. It is the song Jesus taught his disciples; a tune that has resonated for more than 2,000 years; a melody sung in glory and on the earth.
